

Since Sinclair does not pay for the use of the airways, they remain a public resource. Sinclair should not be allowed by those who oversee the use of this resource to propagandize in a way that could skew a public election.